Activity fee description.

Because previous free events often do not match the actual number of participants! We hope to increase the participation rate by charging a fee, and really help people who are willing to do homework together, practice interviews, and organize job hunting teams to encourage each other!

The activity fee will be used to prepare for the future job hunting series of activities/future physical activities by the German Job Hunting Activity Fund, and we hope we can improve both quality and quantity!

Registration fee: 20 Euro (after payment is completed - this fee is non-refundable for everyone who wants to reserve a place)
